Watch Out for E10

Apparently garages can now start selling petrol with a higher dosage of ethanol (E10)

Check the pump to make sure and if it is fill up with 'premium' petrol which is still E5

Many thanks Kit for this nugget

Get me Home

Another story from my blue Dyane TTM322R.....driving home on a wet night and going downhill the wipers stopped. What's more as I went to accelerate up the hill nothing...engine stopped too!

Tried to start...motor turns, fires and engine dies.
After trying this a few times it dawns on me that the problem is with the ignition switch not keeping everything 'on'.

Hmmmm... Shoe lace to the rescue. Tie to key and keep tension on with other end tied to window catch.
Job done.

Switch out at the weekend cleaned up and put back...Result

Post Script

Sauna on Worthing Beach as mentioned by Sue and Maurice at our last meet up. I can feel a sauna and beach BBQ coming on when we can !!

....and Miss Ellie with John of course on way to Sweeden in 2007. Recently Miss Ellie started and moved after some fet- tling for the first time in a little while. Good result John
